

MASHAV

Aid From Israel

OUR MISSION

To lead Israel's efforts in empowering individuals and communities in need by sharing tools and expertise to achieve sustainable development and transformation within their own societies.

HISTORY

MASHAV was established in 1958 following the vision of then Foreign Minister Golda Meir and Prime Minister David Ben Gurion to assist fellow nations overcome development challenges by sharing knowhow and technologies which provided the basis of Israel's own development.

ABOUT US

MASHAV - Israel's Agency for International Development Cooperation at Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs is responsible for the design, coordination and implementation of the State of Israel's development cooperation programs and humanitarian assistance efforts. By placing people at the heart of development, we focus our development activities on human capacity building and on the 'training of trainers' approach, sharing with other countries Israel's own development experience and expertise as well as innovative technologies and tested methodologies. In alignment with the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda, and as a member of the family of nations, the State of Israel through MASHAV, shares the global responsibility of striving to overcome development challenges and contributing to the fight against poverty, while leaving no one behind.

DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

MASHAV emphasizes the importance of creating effective partnerships for development and of implementing cooperative projects both in Israel and abroad with a wide range of partners with each side contributing its strengths and unique experience and expertise:

- Active dialogues for development with donor countries and sister agencies
- Signing bi- and trilateral development cooperation agreements with partner countries
- Multilateral cooperation

HOW WE WORK

MASHAV's training program is comprised of technical assistance and human capacity building based on a demand-driven approach and in accordance with the needs and requests of partner countries. MASHAV's professional activities take place both in Israel and in partner countries.

In Israel:

MASHAV conducts its extensive capacity building program in Israel through professional affiliated leading institutes, and through its core specialized training and consultancy centers:

- Professional training programs
- International conferences
- Thematic delegations

In Partner Countries:

- On-the-spot training programs
- Short and long-term expert consultancies
- Establishment of Centers of Excellence in Agriculture for professional training

PRIORITY SECTORS

MASHAV focuses its human capacity building activities on areas in which Israel has a comparative advantage and accumulated expertise:

- Food Security and Agriculture
- Education for All
- Medicine and Public Health
- Community Development
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment
- Rural-Urban Development
- Research and Development
- Emergency Planning and Response
- Humanitarian Aid

AT A GLANCE

Around the word:

Over 300,000 graduates from 140 countries
50 training centers and demonstration projects
